Friendship

The theme for the evening was acceptance. Cheddleton Light Seekers had an amazing night with Big Brother they chose a character they would like to be and three of them would get into the boat. Yes, we managed to get a boat. Each person would then say why they should be voted to stay in the boat eventually, everybody had a turn. With some equipment and the Big Brother host Phil we set up a video diary room which was transmitted to a big screen. In another room where we all watched and listened to their answers. After everybody had been in the diary room, we all participated in a questionnaire game with chocolate as a reward but some received no reward, even though they got the answer correct and some of us got more chocolate with a very easy answers. Eva shared a bible reading with us about acceptance.
