J Cheddleton Light Seekers What we got up to on 04/03/2009 Next

We started off the evening playing some pancake games, we have two teams competing against each other the games consisted of a frying pan and a table tennis ball it was the first one to get back in a relay without dropping the ball was the winning team, there were many other games too many to list, the light seekers enjoyed them all .We all went into the kitchen and Kath and Eva supervised everybody making pancake mixture . They smelt delicious all I could think of is I'd better make sure they are safe to eat, nobody would fall for this.The light seekers had a choice of maple syrup, lemon juice, sugar and there were no leftovers. We all wrote a personal prayer on a small piece of paper asking God to help us with something we struggle with, nobody knew what was on each prayer paper. We put the prayer papers on a nail this was mounted in the middle of the cross, I said a prayer for everybody and lit the paper prayer requests as we all watch as the prayers were burnt on the cross the ashes formed a rose.

Even the ashes on the cross were made into something beautiful,
