

THANK YOU

Thank you Jesus for the words I speak ears to listen to the birds that sing. Thank you for the rain and wind sometimes soft sometimes hard. When I call for help, in my heart I now you are already with me. You send a shudder through me, sometimes soft sometimes hard.

LIFT MY SPIRIT

I am sorry for all my sadness that I send to you Heavenly Father. You give me so much, so little goes back to you forgive me. Lift my spirit O Lord look into my heart, teach me how to see. Lift my spirit Lord for in my heart I know you watch over me.

LIFT ME

When I am low lift me to sing, my spirit may be
down, make me sing.
Jesus lift my spirit no
more being down. The day
is good when I sing
praise to you spirit ,high I am so no words can
explain .

IN GOD'S TIME

We all walk
with the Holy Spirit, but we build walls. It's harder to hear, too busy to see, so hard to hear. God still sees all. Through brick walls, through Jesus you can have all. Ignoring him
we all mourn. All in Gods
time know, intervened
upside down we go. No
more walls, spirit pours!
We hear and see more.

DAY AND NIGHT

Why do I search so hard
by day and night? For you are there beside me, day
and night. You watch
over me, heart and mind.
So very little praise from
me, just more questions!
Why do I search for you
when you were looking for me? I am the one who was lost.

DANDELION

Creator I am a piece of art with lots of friends,
I'm much loved.
With snails and slugs lots
of them I am much loved. From a dandelion
with love.

HOLY SPIRIT

Thank you Jesus for the life that I see. Sorry for so little that I do. My strength comes from you. Sorry for so little I give. You move within me strengthening my weakness. So much that I could do! Teach me how to trust your Holy Spirit. Show me how to shout it out! Holy Spirit move within me.

FREE WITH HIM

It's very easy to become addicted today.
All around us - temptation.
Jesus will save you.
With the media, more
temptation to have.
Less life you have.
There is always a price to pay.
So sad. Just ask Jesus to come to you. He will break the chain of temptation. It's not going to be easy. Give him a he call, he will be there. To be free with him, You will see.

CATCH US

Hand to catch us on. If we miss – down we go! Until a new rainbow comes. Up we go for a new start. Gods' promise to us all. Gods' Love is for all.

FOOTSTEPS

God shapes us in his way.
His love can be hard on us.
If I take a short cut
doors become locked.
So much lost time looking for my way. Back I go re-shaped in His love.
I now look to his son
following in his footsteps.
The best that I can do.
Doors open with him,
through I go

Some big, some small.

Glass in hand, happy for now.
Pick a bubble

In the world we live in
