

New life Christian Fellowship

Are you mesmerised by the morning dawn or do you shut the curtains, crawl back into bed and wish that chirpy bird would shut its beak!?

Many marvel as creation reflects its creator; others replace the creator with theories. Some think we're living in hell; others believe heaven is on earth; a few don't care...what about you?

Jesus met a man blind from birth. Spitting on the ground he made mud, put it on his eyes, advising him to wash in the Pool of Siloam. Then he could see.

This caused controversy with Religious leaders, especially as it was done on the Sabbath. They questioned the man, but he didn't know who'd healed him. They threw him out!

Jesus later asked if the former blind man believed in "the Son of Man". He, never seeing Jesus before, said: "Who is he, so I may believe?" Jesus replied: "You have now seen him; in fact, he is the one speaking with you." Then the man believed.

Jesus said: "For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind will see and those who see will become blind."

Like a certain London football club manager, do we say "I didn't see that!"

Are we blind to God's signs, oblivious to his presence?

The man had new sight but didn't recognise Jesus until he explained who he was; the Religious leaders followed the law, but they did not know who Jesus was either.

Saul was a religious leader who persecuted Christians, until he was blinded in the desert when Jesus' Voice said: "Why are you persecuting me?"

This blindness made him see Jesus. Learning more Saul regained sight and told others about Jesus.

Who are we listening to - God, the World, the Devil? Even Jesus closest followers got it wrong. Peter protested as Jesus explained about being killed; others wanted to pray for fire from heaven to burn up people who rejected them. They were not tuned in to the correct station!

God's signal is out there for all to see and hear, but unless we tune into God's frequency, we won't see clearly.

God wants us to experience Him; to evolve us into new people, who are free and fully tuned into following His way.

Are you receiving the signal?
