1. What is most precious to you; is it your family or friends, your favourite pet? Maybe your money, car, or football team take first place?

One man had the best friend anyone could find. He gave him love, comfort and encouragement, a truly priceless friendship. Yet the man decided to abandon his perfect friend, betraying him for a price. The man was Judas, the betrayal price was thirty pieces of silver and the perfect friend was Jesus.

After the betrayal the blood money weighed heavy on Judas' soul, he threw it back at the plotting Pharisees and ended his own life.

What is Jesus worth to you, where does he come on your list of treasures?

God wants to be number one, top of the pile, not hidden away until we need him. Possessions and loved ones are great, but God is the best. He deserves first place. Earthly things pass away; you can not take your possessions with you when you die.

Jesus said: "The thief comes to steal, kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full" (John 10: 10 - The Bible). God is not a kill joy, he is a joy giver: "Every good and perfect gift is from above..." (James 1:17 - The Bible). God gives treasures that last forever, if we put him first in our lives.

To those first century Pharisees Jesus was worth thirty pieces of silver; to me he is priceless. What is he worth to you?
