

New Life Christian Fellowship

A newborn child, morning dawn, sunset skies reflect the beauty of life. Death, war, famine, floods reflect life's harrowing hopelessness. Why is life such a cocktail of beauty and sorrow?

I can not explain in full, but here is what I understand: We are in a battle. Good verses evil. Plenty verses famine. Freedom verses slavery. The lord of all evil wants us blinded by doubt, to wallow in hopelessness, fear and self loathing. He will do anything to keep us from the Truth.

The Lord of all good wants us to live, to rest in peace and joy. As we face life's trials He is our hiding place, whenever we are afraid we can trust in Him, with a certain hope for eternity.

To be frank, the prince of this world – the devil – has not got a hope in hell of winning the final battle, that does not mean he can not destroy lives, wreak havoc, devouring as many people as possible. The Lord of the Universe – Jesus – is the victor, he gives freedom, saving people from death and sorrow, if they trust him.

Either way we must choose. Either way we face sorrows, but there is only one way to win out right.

Before Jesus died on the cross and rose to life again he said:

“Do you finally believe? But the time is coming — indeed it’s here now — when you will be scattered, each one going his own way, leaving me alone. Yet I am not alone because the Father is with me. I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.” (John 16:31-33 The Bible)

When things are hard we cry out: “WHY!!!”. The Bible says: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take.”

Remember: God is good. God loves you so much that he sent His only Son, Jesus, to sort out this mess, battle against evil and take all it's punishment, so we do not have to. Jesus is coming back, the ultimate victory is His and can be ours if claim it, by believing in Jesus and trusting in God.

I know whose side I am on, who will you choose?
