

New Life Christian Fellowship

1. Jesus' presence caused reactions. People left everything to follow him. Thousands were moved by his merciful miracles. Religious leaders were threatened by his radical authority.

Faithful followers shouted praises as their long awaited hero rode into Jerusalem, like a King on an unbroken colt. Those who knew of Jesus joined the follower's praises, while religious leaders scolded. On this occasion Jesus allowed his praises to be publicly proclaimed.

Jesus predicted the betrayals of his beloved followers. He knew the people's praises would soon become death threats: "Crucify him!" Yet, he chose the path of love.

Jesus still causes reactions today: Some, blinded by preconceptions, reject Jesus' love. Others stay on the edge, knowing of Jesus but never getting to know him personally. Many follow Jesus, embracing his life giving love.

Jesus knows we will mess up. He will never give up on his faithful followers. Filled with grace, love and acceptance; Jesus died for our sake. It is not too late for you to become the faithful follower that Jesus desires today.
