Message of Hope for the Week

03/03/2009

'Today 200 million Christians are at risk of persecution around the world' - (Open Doors)

Pastors are killed, believers beaten, Sunday School teachers arrested. Under persecution pressure, the suffering Christian's faiths sparkle like diamonds. Jesus' love drives them on, risking everything and putting their lives on the line to share 'His' love with others.

Jesus told a story about a Good Samaritan Luke 10:29-37 who risked his life in bandit country to care for a man who had been beaten and robbed; the religious people of the day ignored his suffering. These faithful followers, like The Good Samaritan, demonstrate Jesus' love, who asks us to 'Love our neighbours.'

In difficult situations remember you are not alone, Jesus cares: 'Cast your cares upon him for he cares for you.' 1 Peter 5:7

We can pray, act, and support these faithful diamonds. "The first thing persecuted Christians ask me for is prayer." Open Doors founder- Brother Andrew. 'It was through your prayers I was able to survive' said one faithful diamond. Visit www.opendoorsuk.org Love your neighbour today.
