

Encountering Hope at Folly Farm

1. Encounter '08, a groundbreaking exciting event, has been planned at Pembrokeshire's Folly Farm, on Saturday March 8th from 6.30pm till 10pm. This brilliant initiative has been organised by Pembrokeshire Baptists in conjunction with HOPE 08.

The Encounter '08 Wales evening includes free fair rides in Europe's largest indoor vintage fair, from 6.30 to 8.00pm, followed by a musical celebration in the theatre led by international Christian worship leader Andy Bromley. Based near Coventry, England, Andy's famous songs include: Your Name, Glorious King, Love Mercy and Wonderful Saviour.

Andy became a full time worship leader at the age of 24 and has travelled to Australia, Canada, USA and across Europe for worship conferences and training events. Locally, Andy's home church is Renewal Christian Canter in the West Midlands, where he and his family have been since December 2006. Over the last six years Andy has also co-led "Worship Academy" a training initiative for worshippers, with his friend and mentor Chris Bowater.

"Encounter 08 has something for everyone," says Steve Lee, one of the organisers "free fair rides for the family, followed by a musical celebration in the theatre with the brilliant musician and worship leader Andy Bromley. It's new, its exciting and possibly an encounter you will never forget, so don't miss it!" continues Steve.

This evening is open to all and entrance is by ticket only, and must be purchased before the event. All under 16's must be accompanied by an adult. Tickets £3 per person & £10 family ticket.

If you would like to go along to this event ticket are available from Emmanuel Christian Book shop, Haverfordwest; The Haven coffee shop, Pembroke; on line at www.encounterwales.org or call 01646 602319. Be there!

